

CER: Ice World Revenge - Scientific Argument

Grading Rubric – Amplify FM 4.3

NAME _____

Paragraph 1 - Introduction
	Introduce the problem/topic
	State your claim you are supporting
	List your evidence you have to support your claim
Paragraph 2 – EVIDENCE AND REASONING
	Describe evidence in detail
	Provide your reasoning that connects your evidence to your claim.
Paragraph 3 – EVIDENCE AND REASONING
	Describe evidence in detail
	Provide your reasoning that connects your evidence to your claim.
Paragraph 4 – EVIDENCE AND REASONING
	Describe evidence in detail
	Provide your reasoning that connects your evidence to your claim.
Paragraph 5 – Conclusion
	Re-state topic/problem
	Re-state your supported claim
	Closing statement connecting your claim to Force and Motion – How do forces affect motion?

Scoring Paragraphs:

0 = Response is off topic or missing

1 = Student expresses alternate conceptions and will likely need support with this content in order to make connections in future units.

2 = Student demonstrates partial understanding and will likely need some support when making connections in future units.

3 = Student demonstrates solid understanding and will likely have a strong background to make connections in future units.